Growing Up in Québec – School Round

2025

Greetings,

The Institut de la statistique du Québec is conducting a large study of children born in 2018. Called Growing Up in Québec, this study aims to better understand the development of children. Your experience as a significant person for your students is important for the study.

You are receiving this letter because you are the homeroom teacher of one or more children participating in the study, and their parents authorized us to contact you.

We want to invite you to complete a questionnaire for each participating child. The list of participating students in your group as well as your login information for each questionnaire can be found in the appendix. Your input will help us obtain a more accurate picture of the realities and experiences of children this age.

The questionnaire takes about 30 minutes to complete and must be filled out outside of your work hours. To thank you for your participation, a $20 cheque will be mailed to you for each questionnaire you have completed.

Thanks for your help!
